UM PRESIDENT TO CHAIR STATE COUNCIL

MISSOULA --

University of Montana President George Dennison has been elected chair of Montana's Community Services Advisory Council, recently appointed by Gov. Marc Racicot.

The 17-member council, an outgrowth of the Legislature's passage in 1993 of the Montana Community Services Act, works under the guidelines of the state and National Community Services acts to ensure that state and federal funds are distributed equitably to volunteer and other programs that work within the acts' guidelines.

Bob Simoneau, north field operations bureau chief for the Department of Labor and Industry's Job Service Division, has been elected vice chair of the council.
